

DON COLLEGE

Who?

It is recommended that students have completed Japanese 2C in Year 11 or equivalent to enrol in this course.

This course provides a pathway to the study of Japanese at tertiary level, and to various vocational education and training (VET) packages that include Japanese components/units of competency.

How?

Work Requirements:

- Ongoing study of Kana and Kanji characters
- Various assessment tasks that assess your developing reading, writing, speaking and listening skills
- Cultural research tasks and activities

Languages

Japanese 3C

What?

Through studying Japanese 3C, you will further develop the ability to communicate in Japanese to provide you with enhanced vocational opportunities and the possibility to apply Japanese culture and language skills to work, further study, training or personal interests.

On successful completion of this Japanese 3C, you will be able to:

- Use Japanese to listen and respond to spoken Japanese
- Use Japanese to communicate with others in spoken Japanese
- Use Japanese to read and respond to written Japanese texts
- Use Japanese to express ideas and information in written Japanese
- Gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of contemporary Japanese customs and daily life, and the cultural context in which Japanese is used
- Reflect on their own culture through the comparison of Australian and Japanese culture.